Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

ABN: 86 504 771 740

Name of village: The Avenue Maroochydore

THE AVENUE | MAROOCHYDORE

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out)
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at <https://theavenuemaroochydore.com.au/>.
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ingoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.
- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:
 - Queensland Retirement Village and Park Advice Service (QRVPAS) which provides free information and legal assistance for residents and prospective residents of retirement village. See www.caxton.org.au or phone 07 3214 6333.
 - The Queensland Law Society which can provide a list of lawyers who practice retirement village law. See www.qls.com.au or phone: 1300 367 757.

More information

- If you decide to move into a retirement village, the operator will provide you with a Prospective Costs Document for your selected unit, a residence contract and other legal documents.
- By law, you must have a copy of the Village Comparison Document, the Prospective Costs Document, the village by-laws, your residence contract and all attachments to your residence contract for at least 21 days before you and the operator enter into the residence contract. This is to give you time to read these documents carefully and seek professional advice about your legal and financial interests. You have the right to waive the 21-day period if you get legal advice from a Queensland lawyer about your contract.

The information in this Village Comparison Document is correct as at 1 July 2026 and applies to prospective residents.

Some of the information in this document may not apply to existing residence contracts.

Ancillary facilities

Either we or the third party operator will be responsible for all utilities (electricity, gas, water etc) and other operational costs in relation to these Ancillary Facilities. The operational costs will be apportioned based on the area that the Ancillary Facilities bear to the area of the village land or on some other terms as we may determine, acting fairly and reasonably.

- café bar (user pays basis), which over time may be sublicensed to a third party by us and will be used by residents in common with members of the public; and

Part 11 – Exit fees – when you leave the village
A resident may have to pay an exit fee to the operator when they leave their unit or when the right to reside in their unit is sold. This is also referred to as a 'deferred management fee' (DMF).
11.1 Do residents pay an exit fee when they permanently leave their unit? If yes: list all exit fee options that may apply to new contracts		☒ Yes – all residents pay an exit fee calculated using the same formula ☐ Yes – all new residents pay an exit fee but the way this is worked out may vary depending on each resident's residence contract ☐ No exit fee ☐ Other See below.
Time period from date of occupation of unit to the date the resident ceases to reside in the unit		Exit fee calculation based on
		The Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable) (see definitions further below)
1 year		7% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable) + Pro Rata Exit Fee* (see further below)
2 years		14% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable) + Pro Rata Exit Fee* (see further below)
3 years		21% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable) + Pro Rata Exit Fee* (see further below)
4 years		28% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable) + Pro Rata Exit Fee* (see further below)
5 years		33% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable)
10 years		33% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable)
Notes: Resale Price is the ingoing contribution paid by the new resident who purchases the right to reside in the Unit. If the right to reside in the Unit is sold to a new resident and we have received the ingoing contribution from the new resident before the date that is 18 months after your residence contract is terminated, then the exit fee is calculated on the Resale Price. Resale Value is the value of the right to reside in the Unit as agreed with us or, if agreement cannot be reached, as determined by a valuer in accordance with the Act. If the right to reside in the Unit has not sold by the date that is 18 months after your residence contract is terminated, then the exit fee is calculated on the Resale Value.

*Periods of occupation that are not a whole number of years

Note: if the period of occupation is not a whole number of years, the exit fee will be worked out on a daily basis.

In particular, for the purposes of the calculating the Pro Rata Exit Fee referred to above, the following formulas apply:

Pro Rata Exit Fee = $A \times B / 365 \text{ days (or 366 in a leap year)} \times \text{Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable)}$

Where:

- A = Pro Rata Exit Fee Percentage (as defined below); and
B = Number of days between the commencement date (if the period of occupancy is less than 1 year) or the last occurring anniversary of the commencement date.

Pro Rata Exit Fee Percentage is the percentage that applies for the relevant period of occupancy which is a pro rata calculation from (and including) the commencement date or last occurring anniversary of the commencement date (as applicable) to (and including) the Exit Date as follows:

- Less than 1 year - 7%
- More than 1 year but less than or equal to 2 years - 7%
- More than 2 years but less than or equal to 3 years - 7%
- More than 3 years but less than or equal to 4 years - 7%
- More than 4 years but less than or equal to 5 years - 5%

Maximum and Minimum exit fees

The maximum (or capped) exit fee is 33% of the Resale Price (or Resale Value, if applicable) after 5 years of residence.

The minimum exit fee is 1/365th of 7% of the Resale Price or Resale Value (as applicable), subject to your right to terminate during the cooling off period.

11.2 What other exit costs do residents need to pay or contribute to?

	• fair wear and tear; and • renovations and other changes to the condition of the unit carried out with agreement of the resident and operator. Fair wear and tear includes a reasonable amount of wear and tear associated with the use of items commonly used in a retirement village. However, a resident is responsible for the cost of replacing a capital item of the retirement village if the resident deliberately damages the item or causes accelerated wear. Note You must keep the unit well maintained and at least in the good repair and condition it was in when you started occupying the unit (which may be evidenced by the entry condition report), fair wear and tear excepted. Please note that we will carry out any Repair Work at your cost. Repair Work means the work to be done to repair the unit or replace items in the unit where such work is reasonably necessary because you have: • caused accelerated wear and tear (including deliberate damage or damage caused or contributed to by your negligence); • carried out alterations to the unit (without our prior written consent); or • carried out alterations to the unit with our prior written consent and a condition of that consent requires you to carry out certain repairs or replacements in the Unit, having regard to: • the condition of the unit when you started occupying the Unit (which may be evidenced by the Entry Condition Report); and • your repair and maintenance obligations under the residence contract. Entry and exit inspections and reports are undertaken by the operator and resident to assess the condition of the unit.
12.2 Is the resident responsible for renovation of the unit when they leave the unit?	☐ Yes, all residents pay% of any renovation costs (in same proportion as the share of the capital gain on the sale of their unit) ☐ Optional, only applies to residents who share in the capital gain on the sale of their unit, and the resident pays% of any renovation costs ☒ No

	Renovation means replacements or repairs other than reinstatement work. By law, the operator is responsible for the cost of any renovation work on a former resident's unit, unless the residence contract provides for the resident to share in the capital gain on the sale of the resident's interest in the unit. Renovation costs are shared between the former resident and operator in the same proportion as any capital gain is to be shared under the residence contract. Despite the above, unless otherwise agreed, we do not require you to contribute to any renovation costs.

Part 13– Capital gain or losses

Part 14 – Exit entitlement or buyback of freehold units

An exit entitlement is the amount the operator may be required to pay the former resident under a residence contract after the right to reside is terminated and the former resident has left the unit.

14.1 How is the exit entitlement which the operator will pay the resident worked out?	If a capital gain: Exit entitlement = IC + CG - EF If a capital loss: Exit entitlement = IC - CL - EF Where: IC means the ingoing contribution paid on commencement of your right to reside (your Ingoing Contribution); CG means 100% of any capital gain as defined below; CL means 100% of any capital loss as defined below; and EF means the exit fee - refer to paragraph 5.2 of the Prospective Costs Document and part 11 above. We will also reimburse you for your reasonable legal costs (to a maximum of $1100 plus GST) in relation to the sale of your right to reside. However, please note section 66 of the Act provides as follows: (a) if we accept an offer for a right to reside less than the Resale Value, your exit entitlement is to be worked out as if the right to reside was sold at the Resale Value; and
---	---

	(b) if you accept an offer for a right to reside less than the Resale Value, your exit entitlement is to be worked out on the amount of the offer. Capital gain Capital gain is: (a) If your right to reside in the Unit is sold to a new resident before your exit entitlement is paid: the amount by which the Resale Price exceeds your Ingoing Contribution; or (b) If your right to reside in the Unit is not sold to a new resident before your exit entitlement is paid: the amount by which the Resale Value exceeds your Ingoing Contribution. Capital Loss Capital loss is: (a) If your right to reside in the Unit is sold to a new resident before your exit entitlement is paid: the amount by which your Ingoing Contribution is greater than the Resale Price (subject to section 66 of the Act); or (b) If your right to reside in the Unit is not sold before your exit entitlement is paid: the amount by which your Ingoing Contribution is greater than the Resale Value.
